

09 SEPTEMBER 2013

PHASE 1

CHAIRPERSON: Thank you. Good morning. We should have started at 09h30 and I see it's 10h10 now. Unfortunately I don't think we'll have any sittings today, we'll have to try tomorrow morning, there seems to be a problem in the building, there's apparently some pipes that burst and so on and so on, the offices that side is full of water and I was told that the maintenance people will come and they will try and see if at all they can be in a position to resolve the problem. We've been advised that maybe we should vacate the premises. It's unfortunate we'll not be in a position to proceed today, we'll have to adjourn until tomorrow morning. It appears as if it's not our side only which is affected, apparently other areas in the same block are also affected. Thank you. In that case let's start tomorrow, let's start tomorrow morning at 09h30. Thank you.
